The 2003 U.S. Adult National Figure Skating Championships held in Ann Arbor, Michigan this past April showcased the finest adult skaters from across the country. Five of those skaters were from right here in Cincinnati.

Jennifer Stratoti, and Barb Berger. The ladies were joined by skating coach Denise Mackey, who made sure all were at the right place at the right time!

interpretive event.

Representing the Figure Skating Club of Cincinnati at the championships were Dottie Janson, Holly McDonell, Cathy Brinkman, Dottie Janson skated in both Silver Ladies and Interpretive Ladies, with a 6th place finish in the interpretive event.

Jennifer Stratoti skated in both the Bronze Ladies and Interpretive Ladies events, showcasing her vibrant on ice personality and very nice spread eagles.

Barb Berger placed 7th out of 16 competitors in the Silver Ladies freeskate, and won the silver medal in her interpretive event.

Holly McDonell made the final round for Bronze Ladies freeskate, and placed 3rd in Interpretive Ladies to win the bronze medal.

Cathy Brinkman, skating in one of the largest flights of Bronze Ladies, placed 8th overall in the freeskate, and had a top ten finish in her

Skate Cincinnati 2003

This years Skate Cincinnati, the annual spring competition hosted by the Figure Skating Club of Cincinnati, had the largest numbers of entries in the competition's history. All of the events went off without a hitch and were on time, with many competitors and spectators commenting on how well run the competition was.

chairperson indicated that Skate Cincinnati 2003 was not only profitable, but also a huge success for the club.

Thank You to all club members and friends who volunteered their time at this years competition.
